Primary Goal:
• Maintaining and improving the safety of pipelines in Washington State

The Committee will:
• Work to improve the understanding and awareness of pipelines and pipeline safety in Washington State.
• Review, comment and make recommendations on proposed local, state and federal laws and rules pertaining to pipelines.
• Give counsel and advice to local governments, state government agencies (particularly the Commission Pipeline Safety Program and the Department of Ecology), and the U.S. Secretary of Transportation on pipeline issues.
• The Committee will assist Washington State citizens to understand pipelines and the safety of Washington pipelines.
• Committee members are expected to interact with key state, city, county, and public groups concerned with pipeline safety and with industry representatives.
