Motor Carrier Safety News
Last quarter, the commission’s Motor Carrier Safety staff completed eight household-goods carrier compliance reviews and inspected six vehicles. One of the vehicles had defects and none were removed from service. Six companies received a satisfactory rating.

State Takes Action Against Illegal Movers
The commission ordered seven moving companies operating illegally to cease providing residential moving services until they obtain a required permit. Four of the residential moving companies received a $5,000 penalty, with $4,500 suspended for two years on the condition that the companies comply with the UTC Order. The four companies are:
- Right Choice Movers, owned by Rickey Caslablanca of Bremerton;
- Danny the Mover, owned by Daniel Eddy and Janyce Stone of Lynnwood;
- Quick Move, owned by Orlando Orellana of Seattle; and
- Yako Home Moving, owned by Boubacar Zida of Bothell.

Two companies, Edmonds-based Phoenix Moving & Logistics, owned by Ricardo (Joe) Lomendico, and Bremerton-based Innovative Moving Co., owned by Daryl Munn, failed to appear at the hearing and were fined $5,000 by default order. Both companies were ordered to cease operating. Best Price Moving & Delivery, owned by Geraldo Lima of Seattle, received a $5,000 penalty that was suspended for two years as long as he ceases operations until obtaining the required permit. Daniel Eddy & Janyce Stone d/b/a Danny the Mover, Boubacar Zida d/b/a 3Z Movers and Geraldo Lima d/b/a King County Services have since received temporary permits from the commission.

Are You Using Appropriate Forms?
Commission staff is finding many permitted moving companies are using incorrect forms in both electronic and hard copy versions. The mover is responsible for using correct forms. The forms (estimates, bills of lading and table of measurements) may contain some of the required components outlined in Tariff 15-C, yet are incorrect. The approved forms can be found on the commission’s website, and downloaded, by going to the link shown on the left of this article titled “Need Forms or Information?” If using forms on electronic devices, please ensure the language in the form is also in compliance with Tariff 15-C. Failure to use correct forms can result in violations or penalties.
